UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE

Did You Know ... University of Tennessee head coach emeritus Pat Summitt is one of four women to have competed on either an Olympic or World Championship Team and returned to USA Basketball as a member of a senior national team coaching staff (Anne Donovan, Dawn Staley, Marian Washington). Summitt was a player on the USA's first women's Olympic squad in 1976, which claimed the silver medal, and also played on the 1975 USA World Championship Team that finished in eighth place. She returned to the sidelines for USA Basketball, coaching the 1984 U.S. Olympic Team to the gold medal and also was the head coach for the silver medal winning 1983 USA Women's World Championship Team.

Tennessee is the only school that can boast of representation on all 10 U.S. Women's Olympic squads. Lady Vol Olympic alums include Cindy Brogdon (1976), Daedra Charles (1992), Bridgette Gordon (1988), Lea Henry (1984), Chamique Holdsclaw (2000), Nikki McCray (1996, 2000), Carla McGhee (1996), Cindy Noble (1980, 1984), Jill Rankin (1980), Patricia Roberts (1976), Pat Head Summitt (1976) and current head coach Holly Warlick (1980). Tamika Catchings (2004, 2008, 2012) and Candace Parker (2008, 2012) have helped keep that streak alive in the most recent Olympics.

While historically Tennessee can't claim the most members of World Championship teams (Nashville Business College and Wayland Baptist College each have 13 athletes on the USA's all-time roster), since 1979 Tennessee has had more athletes compete at the Worlds for the U.S. than any other school. In addition to three-time USA World Championship Team member Catchings, who earned a pair of golds in 2002 and 2010 and a bronze in 2006, UT's 10 USA World Championship members include Charles (1994/bronze), Dena Head (1994/bronze), Holdsclaw (1998/gold), McCray (1998/gold), McGhee (1994/bronze), Noble (1983/silver) Parker (2006/bronze), Michelle Snow (2006/bronze) and Warlick (1979/gold).
